Osaka Excursion From Kyoto - By Public Transport

At 9am, your guide will meet you in the lobby of your hotel. First, visit Osaka Castle, the largest castle in Japan when it was built in 1583. Walk through Dotonbori, a popular shopping and entertainment district, which is also known as a food destination. Head across town to the Shinsekai area, known as the 'retro' part of Osaka. The contrast with the amazing Abeno Harukas skyscraper visited by the end of the day, is striking. At over 900 feet, this is the tallest building in Japan, offering breathtaking views of Osaka.

Reserve a ticket to ride the famous Shinkansen Bullet Train, which is considered to be one of the beast means of transportation because of its punctuality, the comfort that its seats and staff provide, the prioritization of your safety, and for its ridiculous speed. You'll surely arrive at either destination in no time and you'll get filmic views of Tokyo's countryside all throughout your journey! You don't even have to worry about getting hungry or thirsty because small food carts are being pushed around inside and each cart has a wide variety of snacks, drinks, and boxed meals for you to choose from. This is a must if you're following a strict itinerary for your Japan trip because riding this train will definitely save you some time.
